This is the mark of the Ampersand.
The Ampersand is more than a man.
He is a myth, a legend, he is the dark and shadowy feeling that creeps in the deepest parts of man's souls.
Whenever and wherever you see the mark be afraid. Hide your valuables, guard your livestock, and mail your

WHO IS THIS CLAN? JMAX 2/18/11

"Wolverine is a fetus. A deadly fetus"

Let it be known that, on this day, the eighteenth of February in the year of someone else's Word 2011, Dave, Evan/ton/Ethan/Yvonne/Hamlet, and Nat struck a blow for the common man - no, don't write that; it's stupid - DEFIED THE TYRANNICAL FORCE OF THE WANK and plunged ankle-deep into the (apparently) Forbidden Fountain, primordial pool ~~from~~ whence all Story Brook ~~the~~ emerged in times immortal. Though faced with what looked like angry janitors and vicious artists, our daring heroes gallantly escaped. The tinging of Evan's feet was heard throughout the ages. Sadly, Ians 7, 12, and 18 and Dave the 5th, 16th, 23rd and Dave the Viral perished in the excursion, though some say, if one looked into the fountain at a certain time, one could still see the splashing of their atrocious hobbit feet.

Palm Bread Recipe

- one quart pumpkin-chicken-lactose concentrate
- three metre fuckholes palm hearts
- two palms - like, actual palms - from two different children
- four cups water
- two cups palm oil
- baking powder $\frac{1}{4}$ tsp
- $\frac{1}{2}$ tsp salt
- one small alien yeast colony
- $\frac{1}{8}$ tbsp cane sugar

Take the pct concentrate, palm hearts, and chicken palms and grind them enthusiastically in a blender. Transfer to bowl and add water. Whip until frothy. Add palm oil. Stir. Batter should be a sick ruddy color. Add yeast, sugar, salt, baking powder. Mix. Batter should inexplicably bubble. Pour into the best-sized pan and pat into oven preheated to 325°F and bake for 20 minutes or until a strange fluorescent green color. Check for cooked-through-ness. Serves 42.

Vince,

system I have completed the filing cabinet, it is located on the top drawer of the filing cabinet currently used as a magic carpet. I suggest you peruse the files, and change their order + function as you see fit. In addition I have placed the book repair kit, Fred, + Fahrenheit 451 in the bottom drawer of your desk. I also put various blank papers of various kinds in that bottom drawer that obstructs access to the book repair kit, but also makes it harder for other forgeries to mess around with. In the top drawer of the librarian's desk I have thrown a multitude of office supplies. I suggest you look through that drawer and determine which office supplies to keep and which to dispose of. I have also organized the librarian's desk, pens & other office supplies are in now in a box on the left side of the desk, and you now have an inbox. It is on the right side of the desk.

Your humble and faithful servant,
David Spector

Colleen: I just left to fill up my water bottle, expecting to talk about one of my favorite Melville ~~character~~ stories and when I get back I hear that you've alphabetized porn

Dave: Do you want to know how we got there?

Colleen: Sure.

Dave: Well I was explaining to Roman why Charles Dickens was a better punchline than Herman Melville. And I said that while Dickens is known for a wide body of good work most people don't know any Herman Melville's ~~other~~ work stories except for Moby Dick so we started listing Melville stories: Bartleby the Scrivener, The Confidence Man, and I said Backdoor Sluts 9

! Dave: I ~~was~~ had a story published in my high school's literary magazine about a unicorn w/ two horns that nobody cared about

So then Adele said that it might be under the table, which is where our porn is right now, so then I talked about how I filed some Star Trek Porn in Vince's filing cabinet.

Colleen: For emergencies

Roman: That's why I have porn on my hardrive, in case the internet goes out.

Vince: Looks amazed?

Dave: Oh my god you're a genius I feel like the Apes in 2001 when they discovered the Monolith

Adele: Congratulations Roman: you're a Porn Monolith

Words of the next prophet: "Oxycodone + weed" ✓

On May 17th, 2011

A tall young man in a hoodie decided to stop by the Forum today, interrupting Game. This was only his first mistake.

Already ~~apparent~~ ^{visibly} tripping, he proclaimed with hands raised, "Brothers, I've had a religious experience. I've heard my calling, It all started on Facebook and the music. The voice of God, man." We decided to humor him and ~~but~~ ^{but} listen, but were still playing Dad. He said, "Listen to me, I'm trying to raise this higher." Roman replied, "Take it higher, to the first or second floor." He requested paper to write on. He wrote something, and turned the paper over. He declared, "My head is covered, ~~QANNA~~ ~~and~~ I'm under God." Roman points out, "You're under asbestos." The would-be preacher continued only semi-coherently, until Roman made it clear he wasn't welcome. Tom (the stoner) then went into the stacks, ^{to pray to the dehumidifier} emerging only to claim he was 'the Son of God'. After security removed him, ^{thankfully ushered by Anya} the paper he wrote on was inspected, and the scripture was thus 'Oxycodone + weed', truly an enlightened man.

The Tale of the Forum Chair and its Unbinding

Lo! On this, the 7th of November in the year 2011, we the members of the forum excised the dark spirit entombed within the ancient and accursed Chair of the Elders. It unfolded as follows:

Liz, in her typical incredibly well thought out manner, took it into her head to craft out of the Ancient One a pair of shoes so fraught with ~~the~~ essence of forum that they would set off every geiger counter in the Frigate area. The Jesse, in his infinite wisdom, saw that this was good, and joined in the festivities. Tools were wielded with much vigor, and the Chair of the Elders did not (at first) offer much resistance. However, Jesse discovered that some dark sinister witchcraft held its ^{own} wretched frame together with an unnatural strength. It was only with the help of Evan and his powerful staff of Destruction and the combined efforts of the coven of the forum that the wraith that had lashed its nature to the chair, to its heart and narrow, was dissipated. The corpse was picked clean, the broken shell left for the vultures.

The flesh and bone, that which was deemed

Ian King's working was salvaged and remolded into a ~~more potent~~ ^{more potent} distilled form to be used at will. The Elder Shoes.

I ain't / You ain't
I got to
I seen
I done

CORRECT

I am / You are
I am not / You are not
I have to
I have seen / I saw
I have done / I did

- Its is possessive. It's means "it is" or "it has."
Your is possessive. You're means "you are."

- Which word do I use?

Lay or Lie?

To "lay" is to place an object. To "lie" is to recline.

Affect or Effect?

To "affect" is to influence. To "effect" is to cause.

- Punctuation

A comma is used to group words and phrases that belong together. It is also used to denote a slight pause, as with items in a series and interjections.

A colon is used prior to a list or other elements that rename or restate what has been previously stated.

A semicolon is used to separate independent clauses or to divide a series of longer phrases.

An apostrophe is used to indicate the possessive case of nouns, to form a contraction, and to form the plural of a letter or number.

A hyphen divides one word into syllables or joins multiple words.

Quotation marks are used around the exact words someone spoke. Use with titles of songs, short stories, chapter titles, short plays, episodes of television programs, magazine articles, and poems.

Underlining is used with the titles of books, movies, newspapers, television programs, magazines, and long plays.
