~~Ha no bitch~~
I, Taylor Haberkern, designated not-responsible of the SF4M, have been awoken from my state of doing absolutely ~~nothing~~, to christen the new log book - 89.5. The original log book 89 was created in October 2021, but was immediately lost during that semester's Halloween event before anything could be written in it. This book was donated by Samuel Haviland and is being brought into the World November 1st, 2021. Aight so basically I brought in a shitty cheap book and ordered a replacement before the Halloween event. Did we lose it? no. I lost it out and it was "removed" but our first quote set the tone for the years we ^{aspirants} have this one.

Taylor: Kendall, your ^{face} ~~own~~ really lit up at the murder of Horny French people.

Kendall: Yes. They're very funny. ^{but otherwise} I was a

Historian
revisionism → One was brought in. bit fucked up over the next 2 days and didn't
He crossed out stuff is true. Unfortunately, but bring in my replacement Oh well. Strength. I still about 2019/2020 after this

Various things that happened in the log book btwn time

- Log book 88 was finished during Shrek Week
- Our Halloween party was held on the Wednesday before Halloween our first one in the new student union
- It started only a half-hour late!
- Food from support deli was bomb as always
- Decorations kept falling down
- We had our costume contest, Head AC Will won dressed as Bicycle repairman from Monty Python
- He won a pumpkin
- It was his first big in-person event as he was elected during Covid
- Stagger Head AC Taylor (me) could offer no advice as Covid-only Head AC so former H.A.C., current VP Ken helped plan... and they STILL forgot to allocate for the food so we paid after the party for it
- We tried to have a lesson on how to do the timewarp but foramites can't dance. Apparently though, witness to the event, Shane (librarian) said at the end when everyone in the song collapses, everyone but one person dressed as spiderman dropped to the ground. Spiderman just looked at all the other foramites on the ballroom floor and walked away. Shane is upset he wasn't filming this.
- The usual jumbo werewolf game went down. Villagers won. Jolce (pres/librarian) (or Presarian if you will) suffered the deer's curse. She instantly found a werewolf, tried to get them voted up and died w/o success.
- And then some point btwn the ballroom and club room, Historian Thomas lost the logbook as we brought everything down. The End

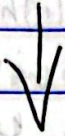

11/1 Shrek Week Started! Shrek Retold is better than the original Shrek, it has Anime Shrek by Normals.

Our story begins with three games and the event with the all or free food. It was a squid game, unfortunately it is by the center for civic justice so it was kinda ass. Dino, Kendall and Thomas participated in the shitty squid game. First game, fill out a voter registration form with a fictional character, Wood... Next was red light green light. A few people got out, but all games survived. Then we played hot potato, after ~~a few~~ several rounds we were fine, but then Thomas was knocked out. During this hot potato Dino's plot armor saved him 4 times nearly getting out every time. Following this was music chairs. After a few rounds where Dino each time (almost) sat down and always found a seat, Dino got a seat while Kendall did not. In a moment of ~~generous~~ sacrifice Dino gives up his seat ~~allowing~~ allowing Kendall to progress and made it to the final 3. It was then that each person introduced themselves, Kendall stated "I am number 8" only. After ~~being~~ asked to say why people should vote for them Kendall said "I am number 8". Following this was the most intense two rounds of musical chairs. Kendall successfully makes it to the final two and in the final round, succeeds!! On choice of prizes Kendall could choose from an echo dot or a mug. He choose the mug for Jolee who broke her leg she just bought to drink tea.

It was clearly the correct choice and we all
'celebrated' glorious victory!

11/2 Shrek Week Day Two, we read the Shrek 2 script. Abby calling Thomas 'Mammy' as Prince Charming 10/10. Many more moments.

William: A cock-pit when you have the cockles fight -
Room: 'immediate immature' laughter*

Thomas: I ate cock today with a side of mash potatoes

Today, the 3rd of November, several forumites wished for death via X-ray.

11/4 We watched Shrek 4. Shrek 3 doesn't exist, fuck that

Unable to hear him, he continues waiting... until she looks up as people start shouting and moving away from him. He had pulled his pants down and exposed himself.
Huda was 17. still.

Vendell: He said his dick was this big and I said that's disgusting, so I'm writing a post on my Forgive Log Book. Your dick is this small, it's the size of this wheel!

He had a gap and was shouting about he needed to go to jail. Taylor's wendy's order got messed up. Security took forever to come and take him away.

Pajama Day

Abby did about 9 people's makeup. Each one looked too cool for the club.

We played monster prom for 3 hours. The cataton people are insane. There is some thing called a gagoner which is just a guy shitting next to the birth of Jesus.

We also played just dance. Abby and Pierre went for 20 songs straight. Neither would ~~yo~~ yield so Abby won through score on Riaspin.

Miranda won ~~the~~ monster prom and just dance.

Pierre manhandled Brady on Moscow. on just dance.

November 12th, the day of the SF4M sleepover event, a group of forumites were playing Cards against Humanity.

Maciej, Card Czar and local polish book nerd Trends the black card.

"Life for American Indians was forever changed when the White Man introduced them to —."

Going through the cards, he eventually stumbles on the white card "Invading Poland." Instant-win.

One week later.

Cards against Humanity, Friday night, everyone playing again. Maciej is card czar and gets the SAME black card.

Mohib, who was there a week ago: "I swear if someone plays the same card —"

Taylor gives him a look and he freaks. Maciej picks up the cards and 3 cards in.

"Invading Poland"

Mohib freaks, Maciej awards it a win on the spot. Taylor wins.

1/1 Daniel: I helped create god.

Taylor: Mr. Ma-Sage, oh w, Mr. Misage!

Marie: Mr. Misogyny?

Rachel: Fucked a bowl of pasta → (~~In master pen~~)

Mike (screaming) also: Strokin' it he's not a gay guy

Rachel: Mike's not a nazi!

THE TALE OF 2021 FESTIVUS

The party was split to get supplies for Festivus. Taylor, Alex, and Brady were to go to Costco, while Ken and Thomas traveled to Uncle Giuseppe's.

~~As was expected, nothing went according to plan...~~

~~The~~ Sammy was left at the forum, in charge of set up.

As was expected, nothing went according to plan...

The Costco Party departed at 4:35 PM, and the Giuseppe Party shortly thereafter. Upon arriving at Uncle Giuseppe's, Ken and Thomas found no one there to give them food. The Costco Party did not fair much better. The Costco group was unable to acquire sterno cans, sheet cake, hot chocolate, or candy canes. There was a shocking lack of Christmas products for it being 12/1. They did find a rotisserie chicken, paid for separately by Brady. To make up for Costco's failings, the party purchased an obscene amount of snacks, in order to reach the $400 budget.
Final total: $394.

In this time, the Giuseppe Party cleaned the pool and returned to the forum.

The Costco Party returned at roughly 6:30.

Since there was no way to safely & legally serve the rotisserie chicken, Forumites held a "Chicken Raffle". The winner accepted their prize... hesitantly.

The Feats (Festivals 2021)

Shortly after the Costco Party returned,

the Feats began. First was the "Feat of Strength"

Brady, an experienced fencer in both Epee and Sabre, claimed victory and the title of Forum Knight

Second was the Feat of Luck, in which two Forumites would drink a cup; one had normal water, the other had salt water.

The other participants would vote on who they thought drank the salt water. Whoever got the most votes lost. The winner of the Feat of Luck was Rachel, who got normal water all three times, winning through pure luck, and not deception.

The final feat was the Feat of Skill, also known as pictionary. The victor of the Feat of Skill was Rachel.

Winners:

Feat of Strength - Brady

Feat of Luck - Rachel

Feat of Skill - Rachel

Full Moon Proposal (Festival 2011)

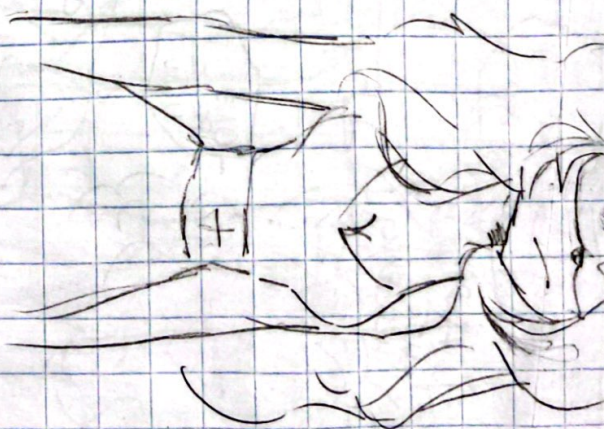

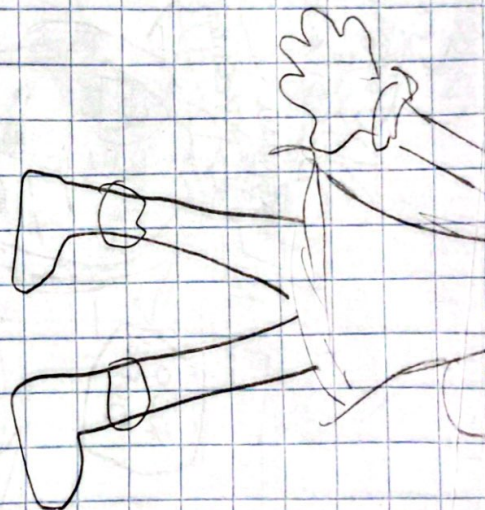

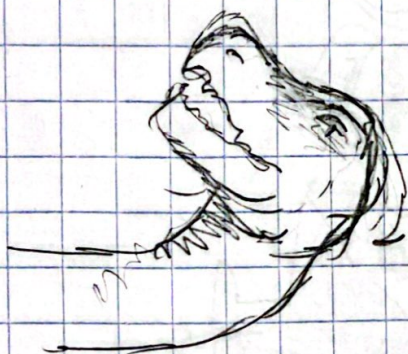

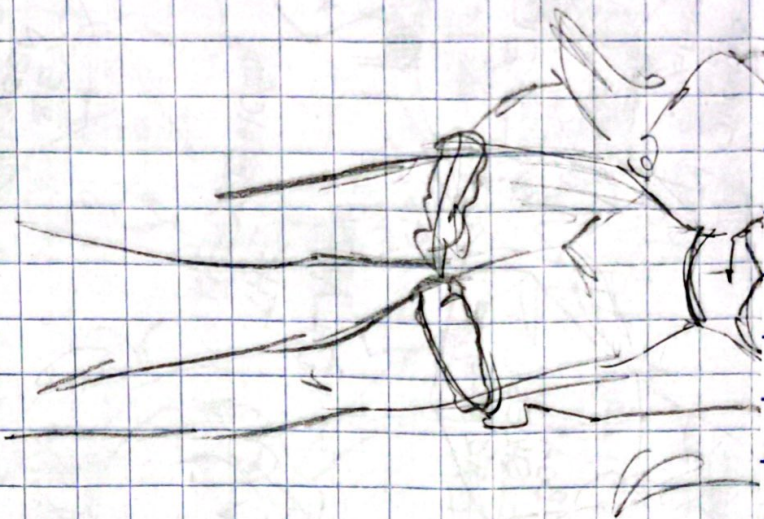

~~The forum ended the ~~public~~ Festival~~

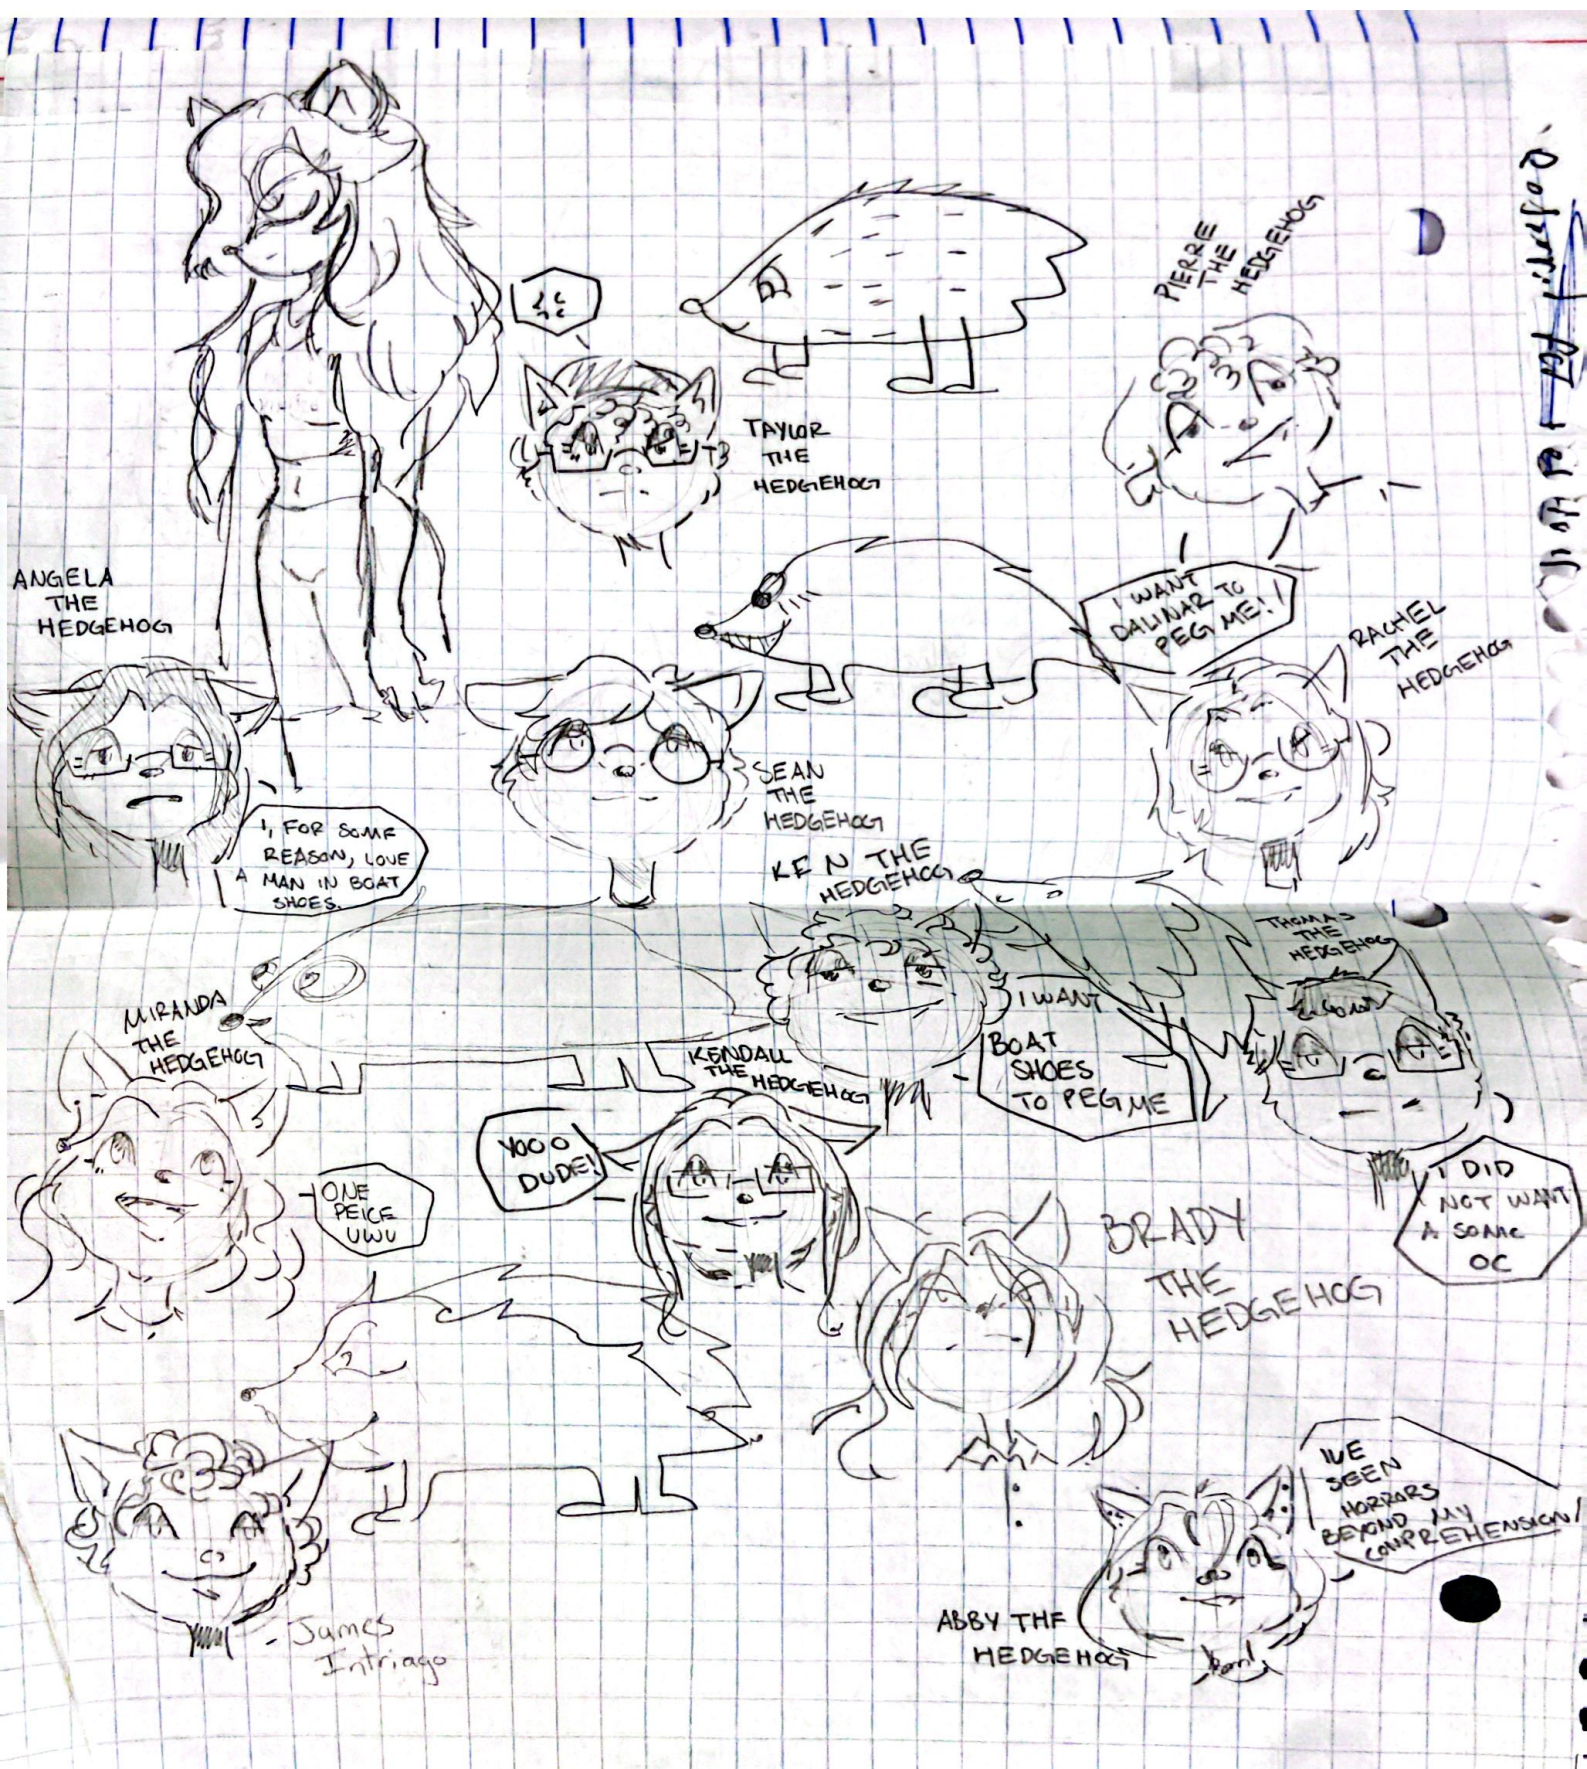

The Forum ended the evening with "a game of Werewolf". This was no ordinary game of werewolf though. A plot was hatched.

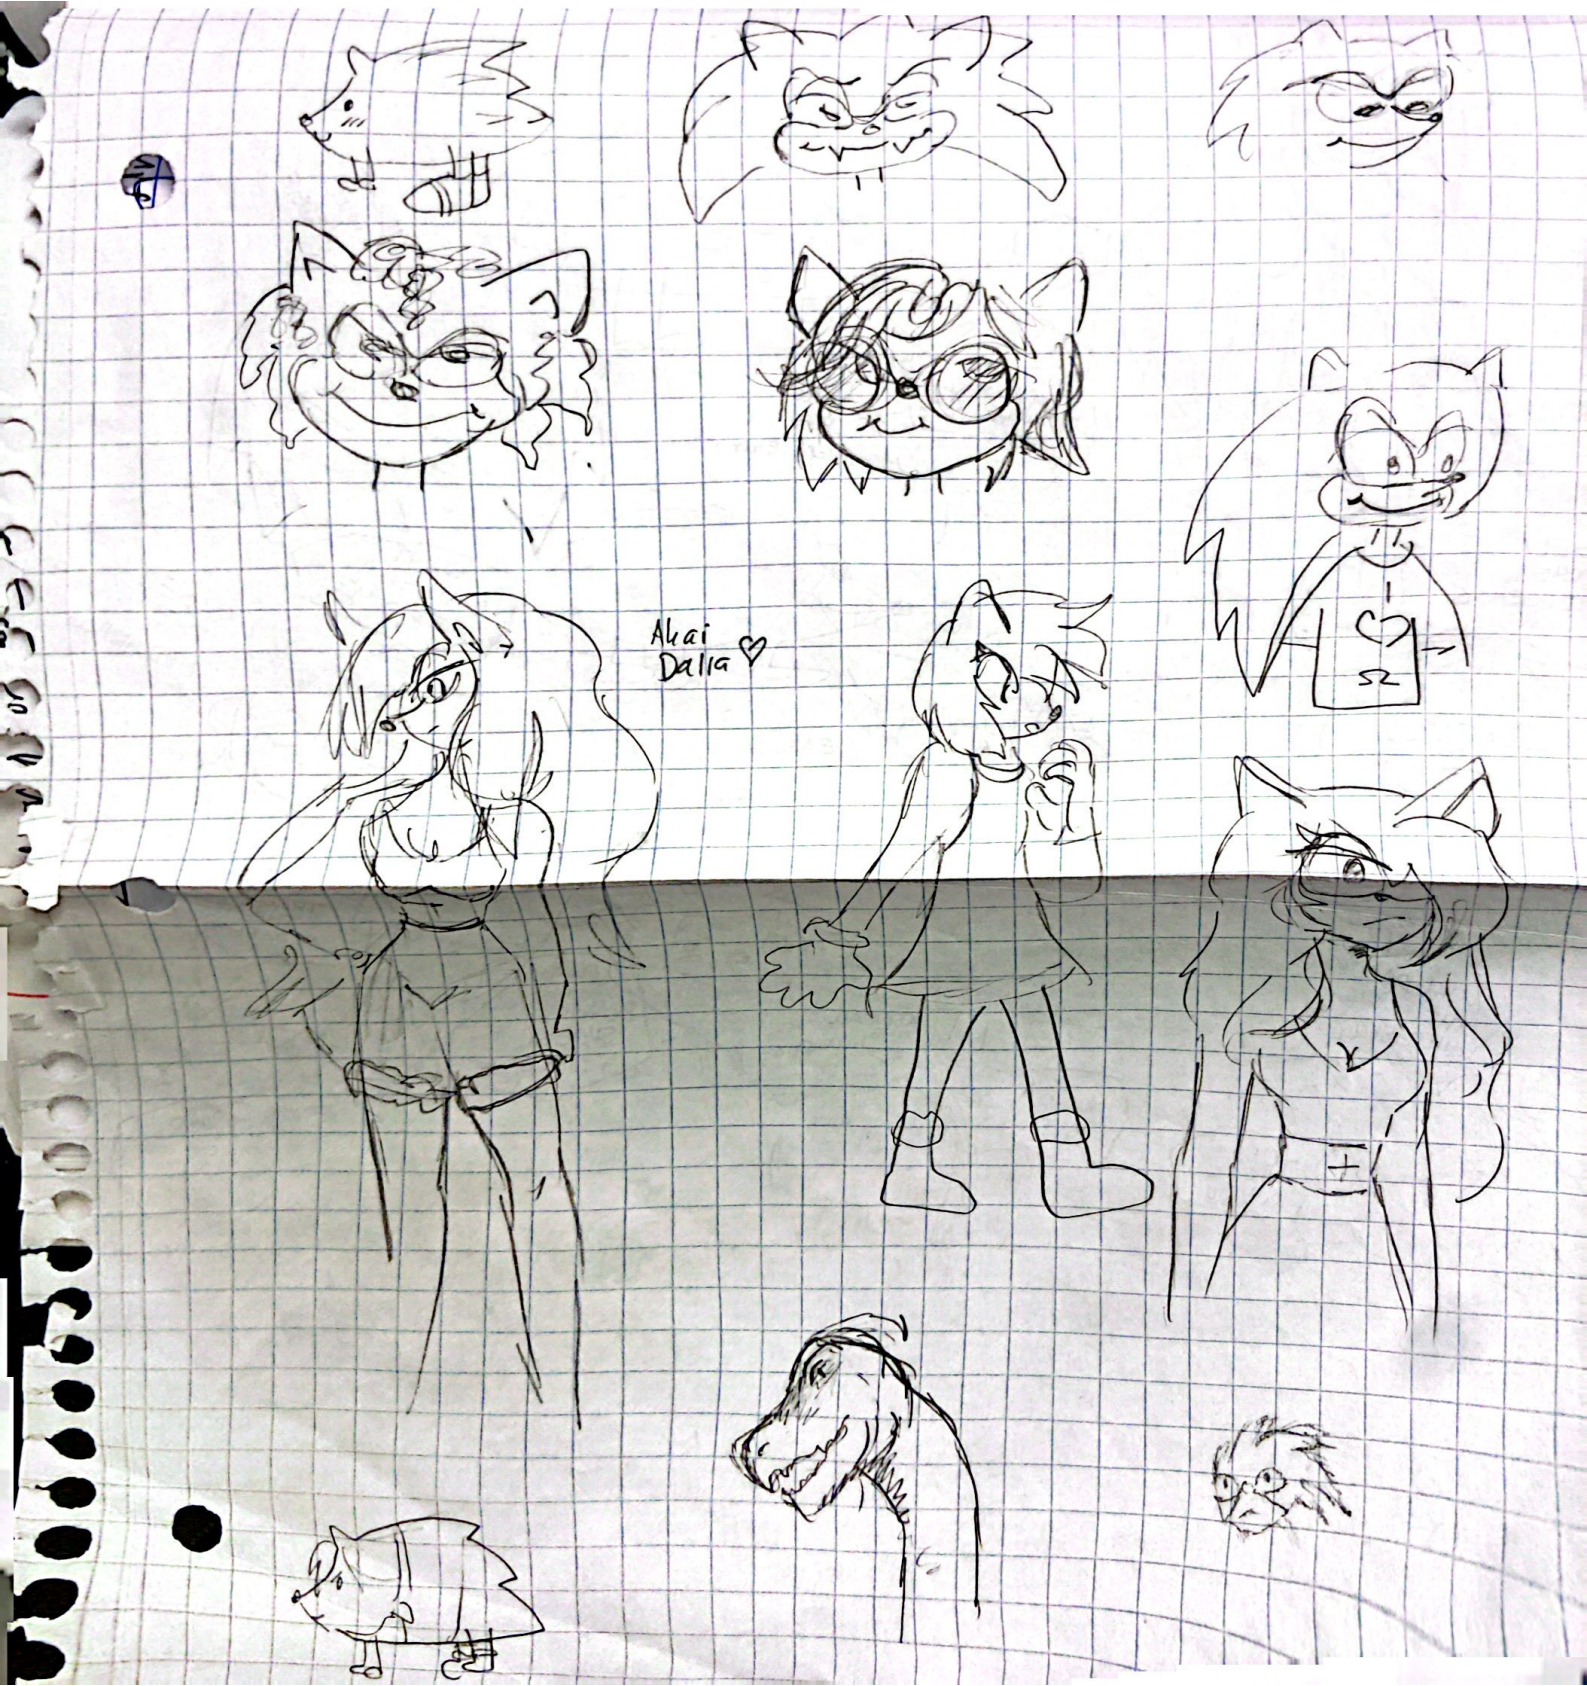

Taylor was given the role of "Cupid," and paired Ken and Angela. After this, Ken proposed to Angela.

It was a pretty great Festival!

Not even two full days into the semester, and an argument over crypto begins in the discord #general channel. The incident began when 3 forumites noticed a flyer for a brand new cryptocurrency club on campus. 1 of these 3 members mess. decided to upload an image of the flyer to the discord, so others could also ~~last~~ laugh about it. Unfortunately, the reaction in the discord was not as expected. It soon devolved into a full discourse about the implementation and either of crypto vs traditional banking systems as well as other crypto related topics. Bilal and Aaron took the side of defending crypto's ^{and powered up by} view while Sean having just seen Folding Ideas's video on NFIS took the opposition. The conversation was non-stop for over an hour nearly 2 full hours. Others had to retreat to different channels to discuss their daily things because they could not break through the crypto feud. Eventually after being threatened to be locked into a thread, the discussion died down.

Last night The LBGT A Cup had a cosplay event. I went as a Pumpkin Headed person from Pottersfield in Over the Garden Wall. I carved the pumpkin that was given as the Prize for the Halloween costume contest. A few forumites and people from the event walked around campus in the col looking for a good place to put it. We tried several, including the Motorsports Statue, but it did not fit well on the head. We considered asking the Forum ladder to put it somewhere but it found a home on top of the vents near the union.

$$10 \times 34 = 340$$

4/7/22 - Masquerade

As usual! 57 people attended the SF4/H's Annual Masquerade!

The beginning of the event was a touch uneventful. Everyone was sitting at their own tables, kinda splitting into separate groups. I was at a table that played a few rounds of Secret Hitler and the a very long game of Uno. ~~A~~ A game of Uno with Fluda is always fun and never predictable.

-The event picked up when Jared started Karaoke. Everyone joined up and had a great time! Classic like: ~~The Pokemon~~ The Pokemon Theme, various One Piece OPs, Satisfied from Hamilton, We don't Talk about Bruno from Encanto, and more.

Karaoke evolved into party dances like the Macarena, cupid Shuffle, and Cotton-eye-Joe. Every one danced flawlessly, and danced long into the night.

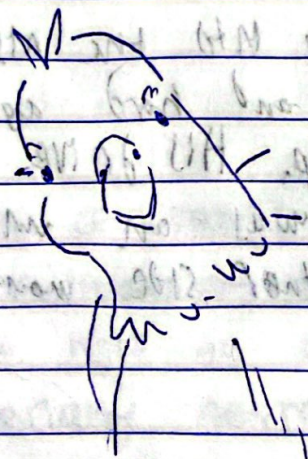

Warning: Multiple foramites have been observed being horny for Fire Emblem (and cosplay overall). PROCEED WITH CAUTION!

5/8 At oddly times in the morning, forum had a terrible discussion on twinks that lasted way too long and bled throughout the rest of the day. The sinning continued for far too long when people were trying to define the term "twink". Too many idiots thought the subject had to be homosexual in order to be classified as a twink, but they're wrong. Twink has its origins in gay communities, but one need not be gay to be proclaimed a twink. It simply refers to a certain body type. All naysayers are denying ~~the~~ the truth about twinks. Anyone can be a twink with enough effort. You reading this can be twinkized one of these days.

To Handle Properly: BoBoBo Bo BoBoBo

1. Before entering a room in which BoBoBo lies, remember to say a prayer to the old gods
2. Do not look at BoBoBo for more than 5 seconds at a time, doing so may cause him to grow stronger
3. When manhandling BoBoBo be sure to tightly grip his face in your dominant hand,
4. When done handling BoBoBo, squeeze him in an embrace for no less than 10 seconds, this will ensure the seal remains firm
5. If another person seeks to handle BoBoBo while he currently lies with you, toss him with moderate force in the direction of the requesting party, DO NOT ATTEMPT TO EXCHANGE BY HAND!
This is very important
6. When you leave a room with BoBoBo inside, take no longer than 15 seconds to exit the room after you last had him in your sights

THURSDAY, JAN. 26 @7PM
L06-08 STUDENT UNION

01 FEB 23

On this day, the first of Feb 2023, we sat for four hours. FOUR FUCKING HOURS PLAYING STARWARS MONOPOLY. What initially began as a regular game soon turned to chaos as we began playing with $2d20$ in place of the $2d6$. At first all seemed fine, people just moved around the board faster, so what? Well... after a player landed on a station we knew something was up. We decided that only $1d20 \times 4$ was good enough rather than $2d20 \times 4$ which seemed OP, and for a while things were normal. Eventually Abby neared bankruptcy and sold all her cards to me in return for free spaces on all my land, she made similar deals later to be protected on all people's squares except Darwin's. Eventually after 2.5 hr Miranda and Dino had to go, so they sold all their cards to Abby, and her invincibility was voided. Darwin later left too, giving all ~~his~~^{their} cards evenly. Eventually Abby neared bankruptcy again, so she once again made deal to gain invincibility. Now she had invincibility from the other 2 players, Ehteshaam and me. In return we would receive each \$100 every time she passed Go. Soon after it became clear that all players were gaining money, so nobody was going to lose. So we did the only reasonable thing - play until the bank was broke. After many many many rolls of the dice I landed on Free parking, and the bank did not have enough money to put \$500 back in the middle... We did it... We won... and more importantly Chris (Banker) lost.

But looking back, who really won? I wasted FOUR HOURS!!! So maybe the real winners are Darwin, Miranda, Dino and Brady Daniel who all left early. Maybe Huda is the real winner for starting the game and wasting everyone's time, and also leaving part way through...

Nah, I think I won along with Ehteshaam and Abby, they all lost as far as I'm concerned

Official 2/8 was the 50th anniversary of Recollection the passing of beloved forumite, Sherman Rattenburg who died
by falling into an open stairwell.

This year we went to White Castle and fulfilled all of the forum mourning rituals.

A steamed white castle slider was taken to three different steam grates because ^{Pres} Shore didn't want us to get caught screaming at the first, the second was unjumpable, and the third was just right. Shore emptied his pockets (and his wallet fell open as cash flew) and did the 2 successful and 1 failed jumps across the grate. The slider was loosely placed over it and the 18 second scream was screamed. Rest in peace, beloved forumite.

"Great rock climbs adventure"
the rock after the sac
parking lot

Unofficial Recollection

- 1) The drive to White Castle was driven by
- 1) Abby + Brady, Rachel, Gav, and Miranda and
 - 2) Chloe + Jared, Sammy, ~~and~~ Mariej, and Kendall.

Chloe was ahead of Abby and refused to go the speed limit or come to a full stop at stop signs so Rachel texted Jared about Abby's (joke) complaints. Chloe then began going under the speed limit (Our two cars were the only cars on the entire trek there) and taking good pauses at every stop sign. It was hilarious.

36 in a school
zone
!!!

- 2) White Castle itself was great. When you ordered your name was entered on the receipt as if you were on the menu. 1 Slider, 1 Chicken Ring, 1 Sherman.

It also smelled bad

- 3) On the way back Abby's car was ahead of Chloe's so it drove slowly as Chloe flashed headlights.

We were overly
cautious

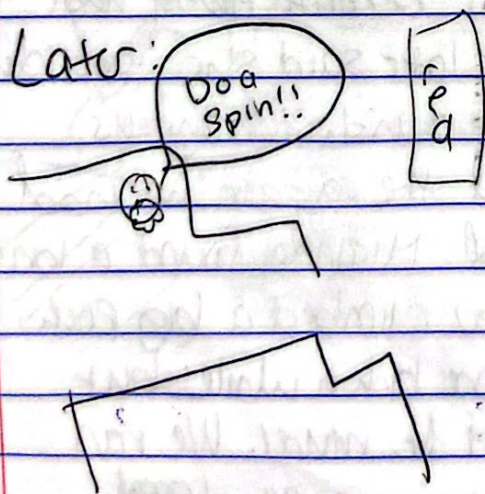

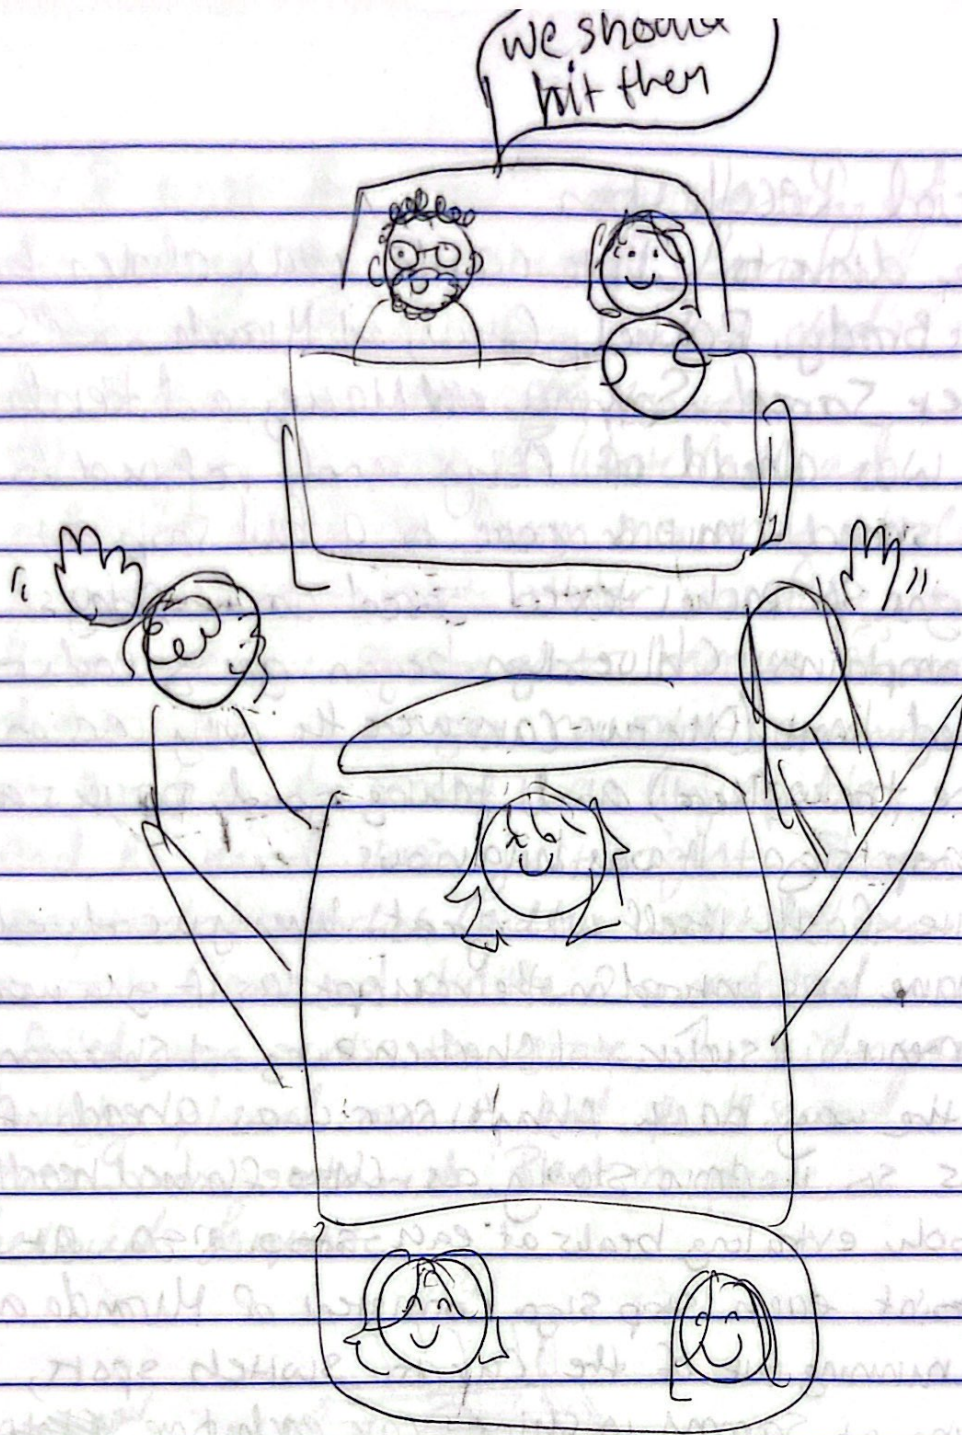

We took extra long breaks at each stop sign. At one point each stop sign consisted of Miranda and Gav running out of the car to switch spots, waving at Sammy in Chloe's car each time.

Later we were next to each other at a red and Sammy yelled
'do aspin

This happened like three times because Abby had 4 devils on her shoulder. Chloe later said she wouldn't drive around us if there wasn't a risk of hitting us.

- ← 4) Took fucking forever to find the grate we had to jump over. Got distracted. Miranda found a brick and carried it everywhere. Gav climbed a big rock. Abby and Kendall joined. Shane took a while but eventually joined. We did the ritual. We ran off. People recorded us running away. Good Food on campus is always dubious, but especially so as of late. In essence, we don't wanna eat it. "But what does this have to do with a car accident? Can you get to the good part?" Well hold your horses impatient hypothetical forvmite, I'm getting there! Anyways, Huda has work later and we wanted to get food from across tracks ^{that I'm} and then park her car closer to her work." As we were going, she forgets her turn. Luckily it's a red light ahead so she can just go into the turn lane later, or just make the next turn. Nope! gotta change lane now. Huda goes into reverse as to not hit the car in front of her Beeeeeeep Thud "Oopsie." Huda reversed, forgetting about the car behind her. They both take the turn and pull over to check the damage, and out from the other car, emerges someone with blue hair and pronouns! (having of pronouns assumed). Luckily there was no damage to either car, and we went to get our food. The food was a let down too, Halal Hut was bland and King Fu Tea does not have Minions cups anymore.

The SBU SF4M, oh what a wonder
A machine to behold, like no other
With its sleek design and futuristic flair
It's a marvel of engineering, beyond compare

With power and speed, it takes flight
A true masterpiece, a magnificent sight
Its agility and grace, a symphony in motion
The SBU SF4M, a true devotion

With each turn and twist, it dances on air
An effortless glide, without any care
With its electric motor, it's clean and green
A step towards a brighter, cleaner scene

As it soars through the sky, it leaves us amazed
A true inspiration, our hearts are dazed
The SBU SF4M, a triumph of innovation
A tribute to the power of human creation

So here's to the SBU SF4M, our hats off to you
A machine of dreams, of skies and blue
May you continue to take flight, higher and higher
A beacon of hope, a symbol of our desire.

This is it. my final day here at foulm and as a student in classes at SBU. Although I haven't been to every GBM or event, I was a regular here on Tues. - Thurs. I started coming here during a difficult time in my life. Everyone here has welcomed me and have been nothing but kind to me. It meant so much for me to find a place like that here during that time. I want to thank each and everyone here who made it all worthwhile. I hope others will come down to foulm and discover what I did in the future in finding such a wonderful space.

I wish everyone here the best of Luck.

I am currently sitting alone in the forum as today is my last day before graduation. I started coming to the forum around the time this logbook started. I wish I joined sooner but ~~but~~ I'm glad I had time I did. I met a lot of great ~~friends~~ friends and have many fond memories of the forum. Before coming here I never had a place where I felt truly understood and appreciated. I'm eternally grateful to the forumites who welcomed me early on, without them I may not have stuck around. I remember my first week in forum sitting in the back corner observing but not engaging. Now almost two years later I had nearly jeopardized my grades by staying in the forum too long. All this to say I have really loved being a part of the forum and to forever be a Forumite. This is not the last you'll see of me, don't worry I hope to be back this fall to see the FNAF movie! And of course I will return for the 55th anniversary. So until then, so long and thanks for all the Fish!

But once I was here I felt at home, now different from Freshman years. I hope that the forum stays weird forever, if not in the way it was in the Union than in some way.

Tonight is occult night and this afternoon we picked up (unrelated) allocations. We got 'Cannibal Campout' which looks like a fucking snuff film, and an Anabelle doll, both of which didn't have a name ??? Who allocated for this ???

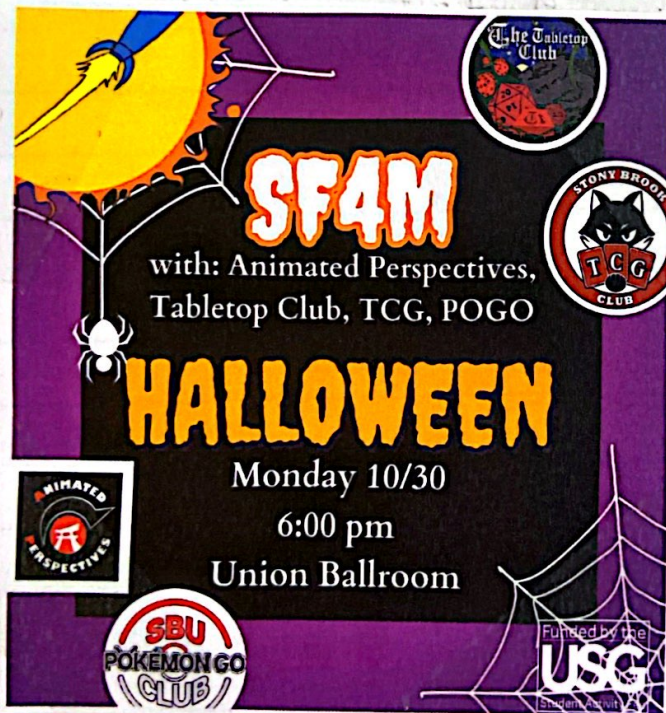

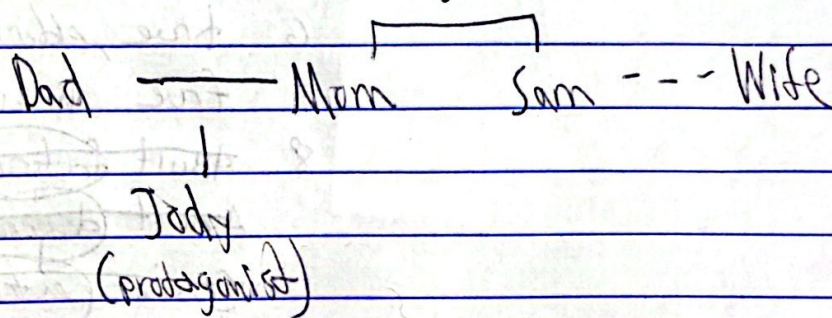

... We think the doll allocated for herself.

Happy Halloween, SF4M6

I am not dressing up today because I am lazy, & have to go into the lab. However, I still have my cape. Last night was our Halloween party (see Alier) and we had 206 people attend! It was our largest event in years. It was a lot of fun, though I should have torn down a chandelier as the phantom (After not winning the costume contest). I'm so glad a lot of people came & had fun. I've got class, that's it for now - Chloe ♥

After hours we are watching Red White and Royal Blue and an explicit gay sex scene appeared and despite my offering to skip it everyone WANTED TO SEE IT??? We debated who would bottom (We are proud Americans, America on Top!!) and like a minute into it the Christian Chinese Club all began walking to their door as we debated closing it. Eventually Jared (like 2 min into it) (firm supporter of playing it) got up to close the doors and turn off the lights to fully enjoy the scene (and make sure everyone stopped focusing on the monopoly deal game) After we opened the door and they were still there PPPHHH.

CHRIS SUCKS AT KEEPY UPPY!!!

He can't keep it up - Sean

11/16/23

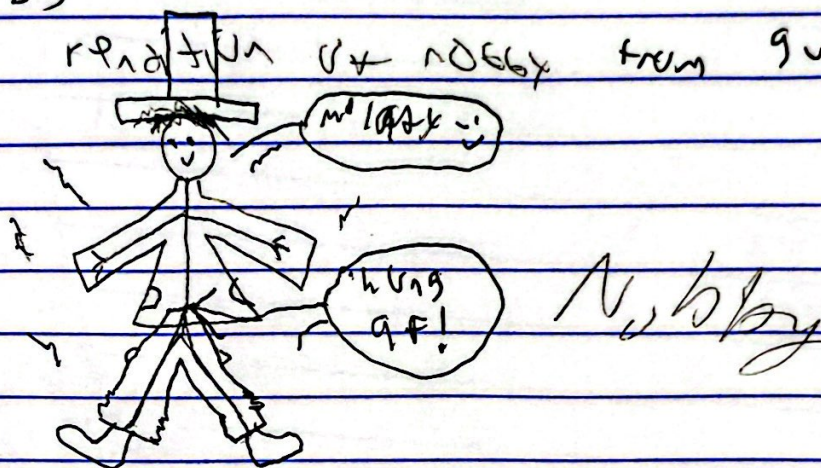

It was a random Thursday night in the middle of the semester, a ~~couple~~ couple Foruinites are playing Vampire Survivors in the lounge. At 11pm a guy walks into the Forum offering a big tray of ^(bakin) bread and a big tray of hummus. He said it was leftovers from an event, I think it was the Muslim Student Association's banquet. Ngl it was kinda mid (imo), but nonetheless we were allowed to take it home.

11/16/23

Hi guys. This is Janelle. My study habits kinda suck right now, balancing everything while being in college can really be such a pain in the ass. I'm working on trying to gamify my study habits and make learning and studying more enjoyable, but it can honestly be really difficult to make such drastic changes like that. I wanted to be productive today but I just couldn't. I think this week burnt me out. That energy drink fucking up my sleep schedule definitely didn't do anything for me. Oh well. I'll try my best tomorrow.

IT IS COLD AS FUCK :C

12/1/23

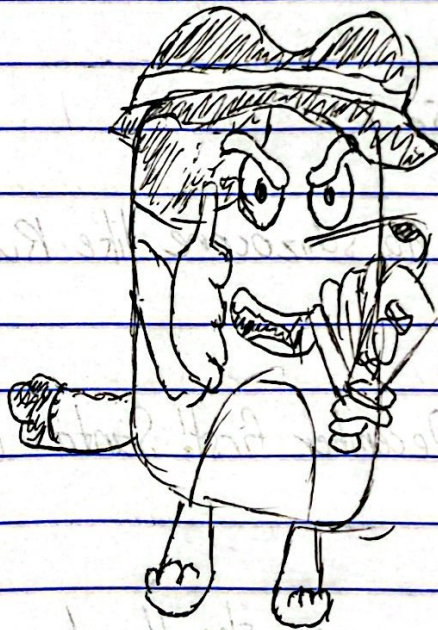

Hi guys. This is Janelle. It's December now. This semester flew by so quick. I don't really have much to say, but one thing I will say is FUCK GEN CHEM!!! Also, Taylor Swift won't leave me alone. This woman has been my top artist for THREE YEARS IN A ROW!!! I don't know what it is about her music but I think a parasitic worm of hers has crawled into my ear, laid eggs, and has forever changed my listening tendencies. Hopefully it'll be different next year. It was easier to enjoy her music when people were less insane about her. I don't really like the way people treat listening to Taylor's Version. Genuinely, who gives a fuck about how much money some millionaire white woman gets? If a Taylor's Version track sounds like ass compared to the original track, I'm obviously not gonna listen to it. Also, her new boyfriend is genuinely so fucking ugly and they look like a Republican couple. He looks like a thumb. Although I'm not really a fan of her as a person, I do have to admit that her music has some type of crack in it. There's always at least a couple songs that I like even from albums I don't like as much. My top artists this year were 1. Taylor (duh) 2. Beabadoobee 3. Paramore 4. Nicki Minaj 5. Lorde. I did not expect Nicki to beat out Lorde. Melodrama was a really formative album for me earlier this year, but I've been trying to listen to more rap so I'm not that surprised. My taste is pretty mainstream, especially compared to other forumites. Maybe I'll write my thoughts on songs and different albums some-time soon.

Erin, Chloe, and Dino helped too

Hi guys. This is Janelle. Sola, Sammy and I cleaned up the entire head AC section impulsively and it looks really nice and organized now. We got rid of a bunch of junk and threw it out in the dumpster behind the Union. There's some stuff that I don't wanna let go to waste though so I'm trying to contact Hidden Treasures to see if they'll take it. I took some extra lightbulbs and Christmas decorations home, and Sola also took some stuff. Better than going to the trash. There were a shit ton of DVD holders that looked fairly valuable, people prefer just keeping DVDs in DVD cases though so they're obsolete. I also logged a bunch of books in the catalog and helped bring books from the top of the shelves down to sort and add to Erin's grab and go book cart idea. Right now is our Polar Express event, and Chloe very generously paid for the hot chocolate packets because VSG sucks, as usual. I don't prefer hot chocolate so I'm drinking some maple apple cider tea. Overall a very nice and productive day!!! I love Sci Fi Farm - Sola

Sammy's keys... GONE! I EATED THEM!

No but Sammy lost his keys... Tore up the whole room and it's still gone. I think they were stolen or lost to the void of campus when speedy sammy was taking off on his scooter.

But alas! Gone forever. During the search, every couch and chair was overturned. Sammy even slashed the bottoms open of every chair with a hacksaw/ hatchet idr what it was. Still no sammy's keys... but Jalee's key and $250 amazon gift card were discovered... we promise Jalee will get her money back... but the key will be transformed! (the code on the key might be altered to trick camp res... we hope). Also this period of time has been the craziest I've ever seen at the Farm. maybe we should lose our keys more often. We could find more money! Future Favorites beware the ghost of Sammy's keys. It wants friends.

Also, the balloon animal booth came in AFTER the Balloon animal event... For shame!

Where should we put the 10ft FNAF poster?

Me thinks I steal it. I'm hungry and cold.

ULTIMATE BLUEY

The Perfect game of bluey combining all three games we have.

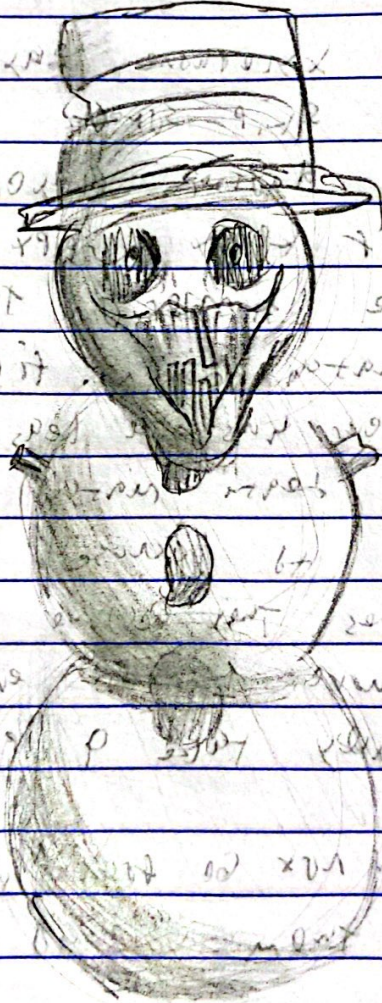

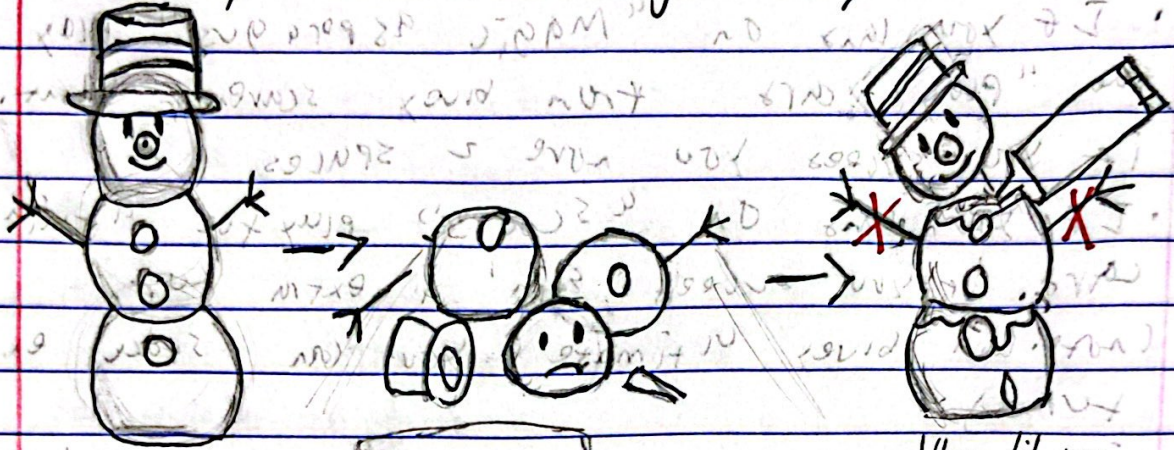

RULES:

- Begin bluey TROUBLE as normal
- If you land on "Magic 88 Porcupus" play the "Play" card from bluey scavenger hunt. If you succeed you move 2 spaces
- If you ~~land~~ on "Scooter" play the "I think" card. If you succeed gain 1 extra turn (note: in bluey ultimate you can stack extra turns)
- If you land on Xylophone, play the "fing" card. If you succeed skip someone's turn
- If you land on another player you must play a game of keep uppy
- Set a 1 minute timer on the game. After 1 minute death match begins. First person to lose a token or whoever has the least loses. After another minute of death match players may bring the table to cause an "earthquake"
- If a player leaves they become a "bluey zombie". They move 1 space every time a 1 is rolled and they take a piece out if they roll 1.
- "bluey zombies" can not be foster in keep uppy.
- If you land on them you go back to home instantly
- Have fun!

01/22 It's the first day of the Spring 24 semester!!!

First thoughts

Sammy: "I'm tired" (starts ranting about Roth's charger)

Jared: "Eepy" (didn't have class today)

Nick: "There's a cute girl in my class.. So good so far!!"

Sean: two thumbs up (graduated)

Kendall: "WHY DO ALL MY FUCKING CLASSES REQUIRE ATTENDANCE ALL OF THE SUDDEN??!"

Hello, I'm Sammy.

Hello, I'm
Sammy.

1/24/23 Hello I'm Sean

It's only the 3rd day of the semester and there's already a ~~pr~~ water main break on campus in Frey Hall so big that water got shut off in the library, chem building, and rec center. Luckily Jared was able to use this for a ~~page~~ PoGo club ad: "The water main broke in Frey Hall this morning... ~~if~~ you know what else is broken? ~~the~~ LANDORUS THERIAN FORM, ONE OF THE BEST T-ROUND TYPES IN POGO! ~~the~~ Pull up to SAC lobby at 6PM tonight. ~~the~~..."

1/30 Gaw abandoned me to go to his "class".
SURE!

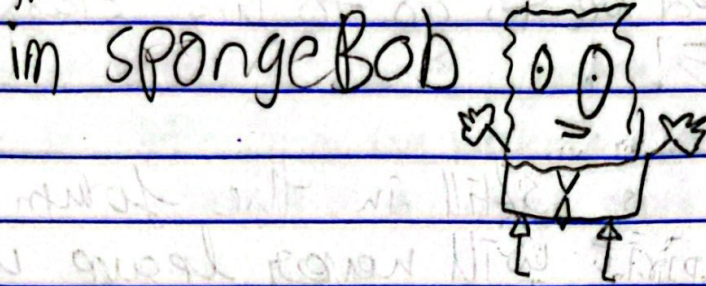

1/31 Ehteshaam is still in the forum. I fear his spirit will never leave us.

Adam is actually competing with me in a class we have together. I have to either win and show that we are smart or lose and say "I'm not a fucking nerd" either way I win.

2/5/24 Everyone in the forum is SpongeBob. The originator is SpongeBob (Chloe) who convinced SpongeBob (Dino) to be SpongeBob & SpongeBob, SpongeBob, SpongeBob followed suit.

FEB Karaoke night was a bust !!
↑ (Cringe fail badly popcorn pitterer came.

Karma for not doing Sherman Ratterberg day...

I went to my first bar yesterday and got carded twice, once at the bar, and before that at a restaurant we went to. At the second id'ing, my ID was scrutinized for a minute because the numbers look weird (valid), and apparently I avoided this scrutiny ^{earlier} by having my key chain fall from my pocket. While everyone ~~more~~ else got tested (for the bouncer's personal amusement), he and I just had a friendly conversation. So point is if you are underage and want in to a bar, just distract/confuse the bouncer! Always works 100% of the time engine - Rachel

FRACTIONS, DECIMALS, PERCENTAGES

3 - numerator
5 - denominator

To add or subtract different fractions,
first find the lowest common denominator:

$$\frac{1}{3} + \frac{2}{5} = \frac{5}{15} + \frac{6}{15} = \frac{11}{15}$$

To multiply:

$$\frac{1}{3} \times \frac{2}{5} = \frac{1}{3} \times \frac{2}{5} = \frac{2}{15}$$

To divide, multiply the first fraction with the reciprocal of the second:

$$\frac{2}{3} \div \frac{1}{6} = \frac{2}{3} \times \frac{6}{1} = 4$$

FRACTION	DECIMAL	PERCENT
1/16	0.0625	6.25%
1/8	0.125	12.5%
3/16	0.1875	18.75%
1/4	0.25	25.0%
5/16	0.3125	31.25%

13/16	0.8125	81.25%
7/8	0.875	87.5%
1	1.0	100.0%

Decimals and Percent

To write a decimal for a percent, move the decimal point two places to the left. Omit the percent sign.

$$15\% = .15 = 0.15 \quad 22.6\% = .226 = 0.226$$

To write a percent for a decimal, move the decimal point two places to the right. Add the percent sign.

$$0.15 = .15 = 15\% \quad 0.226 = .226 = 22.6\%$$

PUNCTUATION

Use a period at the end of a declarative sentence.

EXAMPLE: We went to see the Tulip Festival in Lynden.

Also use a period at the end of an imperative sentence that does not express strong emotion.

EXAMPLE: Open the door.

Use a question mark after an interrogative sentence

EXAMPLE: Where will we go for our field trip?

Use an exclamation mark after a sentence that expresses surprise or strong emotion.

EXAMPLE: Rodney looks just great!

Use a comma to separate words and phrases in a series.

EXAMPLE: Al Smith has goats, some cows,
and a pair of llamas.

Use a semicolon when a conjunction is omitted; it indicates a greater degree of separation than a comma.

EXAMPLE: The trail was steep and rocky;
the wind was savage.

Use a colon to start a list or to formally introduce a statement.

EXAMPLE: She met three friends:
Pam, Bev, and Joe.

Use double quotation marks around a direct quotation.

EXAMPLE: He said, "I am very happy."

Use an apostrophe in a contraction, as in it's (for it is),
or to show possession, as in Dirk's dog.

SPELLING RULES

i before e except after c, or when sounded as a as in neighbor and weigh.

When a word ends in more than one consonant,
do not double the final consonant.

EXAMPLE: frown frowned frowning help helped helping

When a word ends in soft ce or ge, keep the e before able and ous.

EXAMPLE: peace peaceable
courage courageous

When a verb ends in ie, change the ie to y
before adding ing.

EXAMPLE: tie tying (tied!)
