Blue text is for my personal notes. This is generally small comments I have to say about something such as corrections or confirmations. Also used for small thoughts I had that don't hold much importance.

Tabs: Meeting starts this lovely November 11th at 1:21 PM. Happy Veterans Day, or Remembrance Day if you're not American. We have a few important things to do after meeting, they're called election nominations. The positions up for election this semester are Vice President, Head Librarian, Head Activities Coordinator, and Historian. So if you have anyone you think would be good for those roles, prepare those nominations next week. We will be doing another round of nominations and then following that week, we'll have a round of emergency nominations and the election itself. We might hold elections on Friday but that's only if nobody's making these meetings and the people who have to run won't be able to make them. All right, other President stuff. We are hoping to do some merch which would be free apparel using our budget because a lot of clubs are having trouble spending their budget. Jolee sent the form already, but I'll send it again. Pretty sure that's the form, so go and help us find out how much people are interested in it so we can, like, get merch, free merch you guys. I think everyone likes free merch. It's only available to "club individuals," which I'm pretty sure is USG's way of saying active club members, so be aware of that. Vice President, you're up.

While saying the above, Tabs messaged a link but to the wrong form. I have decided to ignore this link and will just include the link to the correct form as typed later.

Ken: How's it going? Vice President here, not much to say besides use the complaint form if you, you know, feel uncomfortable, someone's making you feel uncomfortable or something uncomfortable in the club that you want to notify me about. We're having elections after meeting. That's it.

Tabs: All right, Treasurer, you're up. I'm presenting the screen, give me a minute.

Jolee: Okay, this week's allocations are Marsupilami Volume 1 for $11.95, Marsupilami Volume 2 for $11.95, Marsupilami Volume 3 for $11.95, Marsupilami Volume 4 for $11.95. And then we have Yoko Suno Volumes 1 through 15. The price varies a little bit on each of them on the screen. I don't really want to read them all out, but most of them are $11.95, some of them are a little less. And then we have some orders for knitting needles, regular knitting needles that are each $11.99.

Tabs: Alright, motion to strike anything from the list? That's anything that you think is far too expensive or unrelated to the club. Going once. Going twice. All right, motion to allocate?

Tom: Typed knitting needles kinda sus, but ill pass

Ken: Acclimate.

Tabs: Okay, good enough. Motion to acclimate?

Ken: Acclimate.

Tabs: All right, good job. That's our Treasurer stuff. We're getting all that good stuff, a lot of books, some event stuff. All right, after Treasurer we have Secretary, so please be patient as he types.

Alex: Typed Hey, not much to say as Secretary but thanks again for muting. Transcripts are coming out at a steady pace now. I do want to say for future reference when this transcript comes out, the reason it is not up to the usual standard is because my audio recording add-ons were not working today. This should be fixed before future meetings.

Tabs: All right, sounds good and reasonable. Head Librarian, you're up.

Jolee: My position is up for nomination. If you're thinking you know someone who would do a good job as Head Librarian, please feel free to nominate them.

Tabs: All right, Head Activities Coordinator... Is she there by the way?

Jolee: No events this weekend, Taylor says we're just chilling.

Tabs: All right, cool. Historian.

Tom: Historian is up for nomination this week, so if you have anybody who's good at telling history, good at understanding the fine nuances of a joke from generations ago, maybe nominate them. For instance, I have quite the story this week, it's related to the alcohol that was once stored in the Forum. Many of you may or may not know that the Forum was once a place full of alcohol and tobacco and a couple other things which we like to think is not the cause of the Great Fire. But in any case, we used to have quite a bit of alcohol stored in there and there was a bottle of white wine known as Pissmonger. As you may have guessed, this wine bottle was indeed filled with piss. The reason they found out was because the President at the time checked it. Disgusted, the President took it, ran to the dumpster screaming, and attempted to throw it into the dumpster. I say 'attempted' because the room smelled like piss for weeks and the President never really got it out of their nose. So, moral of the story: don't piss in bottles.

Tabs: That's a pretty good moral of the story. All right, Head PR's not here right now, but I think she would be interested in promoting our Merch Interest form, which I will drop the link for again and it's the actual right one this time. Typed

Yeah, so fill that out. Let us get free merch and promote our club because technically these merch are for club promotional apparel. All right, it's open forum, anything anyone wants to say? I don't know, new shows? Wishes of luck? Questions?

Tom: Cyberpunk 2077 comes out later now, that's fun.

Tabs: All right, all right, I'm just gonna say we end open forum and move on to the election process. All right, motion to end meeting?

Tom: Just acclimate.

Jolee: Seconded.

Ken: Seconded.

Tabs: Meeting ends at 1:30 PM.
