Tabs: Hello everyone, welcome to our last meeting of the semester. I hope everyone has a very good time with their finals. We're gonna do elections right after the meeting so hopefully you're all ready to find out who are our new Vice President, Head Librarian, Head AC, Historian, and- actually, I think that's all of them. Yeah, all right, so let's get this on the road. I don't have much to say President-wise other than what I've already said. So, Vice President.

Ken: Hey guys, what up? It's been a rough semester everyone. If I don't win today, I just want [to let] you know that I appreciate the position and it was great to work with the club and make sure that you study up well for finals and you still have time to make reports against people who've been making you uncomfortable this semester or any issues really with the club that you want to discuss. Feel free to let me know before the semester is over.

Tabs: All right, thank you. Remember the report form is on the website under forms. After Vice President, we have Treasurer.

Jolee: We're very lucky right now because there are no requests in the request form, we're all done for the year, which works out because we can't really allocate for stuff this late in the year usually.

Tabs: Great for-

Jolee: Please remember to vote.

Tabs: All right, thank you. After Treasurer, we have Secretary. Be patient while he types.

Alex: Typed Good luck to everyone with finals coming up! Nothing much to say as Secretary as we're all up to date on transcripts actually. Thanks to everyone who's helped me improve them!

Alex: Typed That's all.

Tabs: And thank you for doing so well on those transcripts. After Secretary, we have Head Librarian.

Jolee: Hi, this might be my last time, but remember to vote for the position please.

Tabs: Thank you. After Head Librarian, we have Head AC... She there?

Jolee: No, 'cause I don't live with Taylor anymore.

Tabs: Ah, right. It's no longer there. All right, fine. I don't think we have any events coming up over break anyway, so not much to announce. And we'll have a new Head AC guaranteed after elections, She did not run again. All right, after Head AC, we have Historian.

Tom: Hey guys, time to at least try to perk people's mood up. So, we've had a tradition before- Well first I'll tell you the story of how we had Festivus. So usually we have a Christmas par- or Festivus party every year just before finals to hype ourselves up, have a good time. Unfortunately, we may or may not be able to have it that this year, but we do have another tradition we like to do. This was a tradition Neville was particularly fond of, and it was a showing of the Star Wars Christmas Special every year in the forum. So hopefully, maybe we'll be able to stream that on Discord again this year and try to keep that tradition alive at least because it's the Star Wars Christmas Special, it's quite the doozy.

Secretary's Note: There is no Star Wars Christmas Special, the title is Star Wars Holiday Special. The holiday celebrated in the film is called Life Day. This is a fictional holiday.

Tabs: Didn't they also-

Jolee: This would be unofficially.

Tom: Yes, also unofficial, but still a tradition.

Tabs: Yeah, didn't they also recently make, like, a Lego version of that?

Tom: That's news to me, that sounds incredible.

Tabs: I'll look into it later. All right, After Historian, we have our Head PR, who's also not here today. She cannot make the meeting times, but we also still don't have any events coming up so that's not the biggest problem. Next semester we are gonna try to push harder on those... What are they called? Shirt things?

Jolee: Merch.

Tabs: Merch, yeah. If you're looking to express your interest in Forum apparel, the form is still up. So, please fill that out if you haven't already. All right, I think that is all for our e-board announcements, so I will open it to open forum.

Will: Typed marketable plushies

Tabs: We can't make plushies, I think that might cost too much. Also, I don't know how to do that. But I guess we could technically look into it. Laughs Yeah, but the merch would be free, by the way. This is just basically we could use our budget to buy merch for active members.

Ken: Yes.

Tabs: So, basically we could get everyone free shirts but that's probably the best we could do. I don't know how to do the plushies. Alright-

Jolee: It's really hard to do plushies because a lot of different companies you kind of just give them a brief and they do their own thing on it. So it's really difficult to, like, get a decent product-

Tabs: Yeah.

Jolee: usually, for a good price.

Tabs: We don't have, like, an infinite supply of money we can spend on that, they have a limit. All right, all right, other than that open forum time. Anyone who wants to announce anything or ask any questions, go ahead.

Tom: I have a clarification.

Tom: There is a new Lego Star Wars Holiday Special, but it is using the new gen Star Wars rather than the old gen which was the original special.

Tabs: Ah, okay. That's kind of lame, I just thought they made a Lego version of the old one.

Laughs

Tom: That would have been amazing.

Nathan: Typed Why not just watch both?

Shane: I prefer not to speak of the old one.

Tabs & Tom: Laughs

Shane: I don't think they can ever make a new thing that's as painful as the old one.

Jolee: What do you mean? It's great Bea Arthur's in it.

Shane: I mean it is great, but...

Tabs: Yeah, the new one's probably fine. Any other announcements, questions, concerns?

Jolee: Typed YES

Tabs: Yeah, we could watch both... All right, I'm gonna close open forum and I'm gonna, I guess, motion to end the meeting.

Pause

Tom: Seconded.

Jolee: Seconded.

Tabs: Thank you. All right, meeting ends at 1:20 PM. Old business: stay clean, don't get sick, treat the Discord like a child you don't abuse. New business: stay clean, don't get sick, treat the Discord like a child you don't abuse.

TL;DR/Important Notes
