

Tabs: Alright, hello everyone, welcome back. This is once again having- Oh, someone's coming in. Alright, I'm gonna start over. We're gonna start the meeting at 3:08 PM. Everyone, welcome back to our general body meeting. We have our attendance form, fill that out at some point during, or shortly after the meeting. President-wise, not much to talk about. Hope you're all enjoying your Spring Brook staycation, where we don't actually go on our Spring break because that would be coming up. I know some of you have been lucky enough to get your classes canceled. I'm not one of those people, but hopefully, if you're one of those people, you're having a little bit of rested up time and good luck on any midterms that you may or may not have scheduled during what was supposed to be Spring break, like me. Vice President is next.

Ken: Hey everyone, what's up? Ken here, I'm Vice President of Science Fiction Forum for anyone who's new. Happy Spring, hope you guys are all doing well on your midterms. I'm lucky I don't have that many classes in that, next week. Suck it, Tabs, I guess.

Tabs: [Laughs]

Ken: If you have any issue with something involving the Forum or people in the Forum, feel free to message me. We have a complaint form, it's on our website. I'd post it, but unfortunately, I'm at my phone right now due to circumstances. For some reason, I'm always at my phone for meetings.

Angela: You could just go upstairs, Ken.

Ken: No, no. Anyway, that's all from me. Next up is Treasurer, I think.

Jolee: Hello everybody, there's nothing much to say for Treasurer. Fill out the request form if there's anything you want that's genre. I can't guarantee we'll get it this semester but we'll get to it eventually. I hope everyone's having a good... Spring break I guess, for everyone who has it. Yeah, Hades, but good luck on midterms.

Tabs: After Treasurer, we have our Secretary.

Alex: Hello, Secretary Alex here, nothing much to say here again. I guess I should apologize that transcripts have been slow but I don't have much work to do this weekend. So I'm hoping to get one out. We just had an inventory check, that's all handled... And I guess good luck on midterms to everyone and thanks for keeping yourselves muted so it's easier for when I inevitably get around to making the transcripts, thank you all.

Tabs: All right, after Secretary we have our Head Librarian.

Jolee: Shane's not here this time. There's really not much to say, again, if you want a book of any kind, please fill out the request form. That's all. We're working on getting things organized. But of course, I'm not on campus at the moment and we don't really have volunteers to go and organize the books. So, that's still taking forever.

Tabs: Yeah, hopefully the room will be open next semester, seems like possible.

Jolee: We hope.

Tabs: Yeah, after Head Librarian, we have our Head Activities Coordinator.

William: Oh, memory. Whoops. Hello everybody. Not much going on here. Probably going to be showing Fleischer Superman cartoons sometime next week, so stay tuned for that.

Tabs: Alright, hopefully we have some- Oh, you got more?

William: No, I just saw something in the chat. There's still trying to figure out how to do Minecraft, but hopefully that'll be happening soon too.

Tabs: Alright, cool. After Head AC, we have our Historian.

Tom: Hello everybody, I have a story for you all. It's a story from just about last year. A story that should give a stark reminder of what life was like one year ago before Covid. It's called The Running of the Forumites. You see, in meetings quite similar to this one, where we had a good maybe, this amount of people maybe a bit more but all in person, of course. We were just about to start meeting when we had our past- we had Taylor who was our head AC last semester. But, last year she tended to not attend meetings at all. So just before meeting started, she let everybody know, "Hey, there's a cool new VR place on campus," so she immediately took everybody that was not on eboard, which I think was like five, six, maybe seven people out of the room and rushed towards the VR Center. During this, everybody Naruto run on the way there to play their VR and meeting went with only eboard and it was quiet 'cause there was nobody to actually talk to. And yeah, so thanks Taylor.

Tabs: She's once again not here because she doesn't go to meetings.

Tom: Yup.

Tabs: And Jolee's at home.

Tom: Never goes to meetings.

Jolee: I'm not even with her right now to proxy.

Angela: [Redacted]

Tabs: Alright. Alright, alright, good story, I remember that. I'm pretty sure I remember that. And after Historian, we got our Head PR.

Brenda: Hi, hello. Not much for me. The weather's really nice though, should go enjoy that after the meeting. Yeah, thank you.

Tabs: Alright, good stuff. Now that all of eboard has gone, we shall open it up to the Forum, open forum time. Who's got stuff to talk about? Anyone.

Ken: Hey, how's it going? Ken here, I'm not sure what you guys know, but recently Netflix released a Dota 2 anime and it's like, actually a lot better than I expected even as a Dota fan. Like, I mean, I wasn't holding out hope for much 'cause, you know, like a lot of like, tie-in animes are like Yu-Gi-Oh! I mean, not bashing Yu-Gi-Oh!, but like, this could be like trying to sell cards or whatever. But the Dota 2 anime is just like pretty, pretty good and the animation's like a lot better than I expected. Anyway, that's all I have to say about that, so check it out if you want to.

Tabs: Alright, just gonna plug Smurfs 2021 coming out this fall. Think in October, look forward to that. It's gonna be on Nickelodeon.

Tom: Yeah, this week was our anniversary of Covid, of last year's Spring break which we had two weeks, that was fun. Remember that? And also Animal Crossing came out and also the stock market crash. That was a fun week, actually was a fun day because all March 20th.

Tabs: Yeah, and yeah, as Jolee said, the Asterix switch game also this Fall, look forward to that. Any other announcements? Goin' once... Goin' twice... Okay, open forum is closed. Here is another reminder to fill out our attendance form 'cause I see only 7 responses and 12 people in here plus I heard Angela.

Angela: Am I allowed to fill it out? I don't know.

Alex: I'm filling it out later because recording and all that.

Tabs: That's fair, that's fair.

Angela: Someone just add me to the list later.

Jolee: You have an email with the school's.

Tabs: Alright, that is the wrong form... That's the right form. Alright-

Sean: Yeah, that was the request form, wasn't it?

Tabs: Yeah, that's the right form, they both say form. Anyway, Alright, motion to end meeting, I won't forget this time.

Alex: Seconded.

Tabs: All right, good enough.

Rahib: Square.

Tabs: Alright.

Jolee: Seconded.

Tabs: Old business: stay clean, don't get sick, treat the Discord like a child you don't abuse. New business: stay clean, don't get sick, treat the Discord like a child you don't abuse. The meeting will end at 3:18 PM. Good job everyone, we did it.

TL;DR/Important Notes

- Use the sf4m.org website to report any issues you may have involving the club/members. Also use the website to make requests to add games, movies, and books to our inventory, although we will not be having allocations this semester due to the pandemic and budget cuts.
- William has been trying to run a Minecraft event, potentially an upcoming event in near future. William also intends to show Fleischer Superman cartoons. There will also be movies on the Events Discord and there is a form in said Discord to request specific events.
- The Historian story for this meeting was called “The Running of the Forumites”.
- A reminder to stay safe and clean during the pandemic. Please schedule your vaccine.
- Good luck wishes for exams.
- This meeting occurred during Stony Brook University’s staycation
- We mentioned the Dota 2 Netflix anime, the upcoming Smurfs (2021) cartoon series, and the upcoming Asterix Nintendo Switch game.
