

Tabs: Alright, it's 3:05, I'm starting meeting. Welcome, everyone, back. Probably have one more meeting after this, so semester's almost done. I hope everyone's ready for their finals, hope everyone's doing fine on final projects. Yeah, congratulations to everyone who's graduating this semester, I know I am and I know several other people are as well. So, good job guys, you did it, made it through college. That's all for President, Vice President, you can go.

Ken: Hey guys, what up? I'm kinda sick due to Covid vaccine, but do well on finals and if you have a complaint, go to the website and use the complaint form. I don't really have much else to say.

Tabs: Yeah, sf4m.orgs/forms, scroll below the request form, fill out the report form. After VP, we have our Treasurer who actually has some allocations to make since we've reached the end of the semester.

Jolee: So of the allocations we are having its Al Capps' complete Shmoos the comic book series, Banana Katana, Invader Zim number 9, Invader Zim number 10, Smurfs 3-in-1 number one, Smurfs 3-in-1 number 2, Smurfs 3-in-1 number 3, Smurfs: the Jewel Smurfer, Smurfs: the Finance Smurf, American Asterix Omnibus 1, American Asterix Omnibus 2, American Asterix Omnibus 3, and the Undiscovered Country Volume 1. We also have Mage Knight, Spirit Island, and a charger for the new room.

Tabs: Do you have the total for that?

Jolee: All of it, as far as I can tell, will total to about- Hold on. Google Sheets, why are you being difficult today? It should all total to about $400, a little less.

Tabs: Alright, motion to strike anything from the list. Goin' once... Goin' twice... Okay, motion to allocate.

Jolee: Seconded.

William: Acclimated.

Alex: Seconded.

Tabs: Motion to acclimate.

Tom: Seconded.

Alex: Acclimate.

Tabs: Yeah, alright, good enough. I heard multiple voices and that's good enough for me. Alright, all that stuff will be added to our library when we get them. Any other Treasurer announcements?

Tabs: I'll take that as-

Jolee: Other than just fill out the request form, yeah, it's in the same page, sf4m.org/forms.

Tabs: Alright. Yeah, after Treasurer, we have our Secretary. Do your announcements.

Alex: Hey y'all, Secretary here. Thanks again for keeping muted. Wanna apologize again for the slower transcript release this semester, been busier than I anticipated at the start. Good luck on the finals for everyone and congratulations to those graduating. I've got nothing else to say.

Tabs: Alright, good job. Head Librarian, think both of them are here this time.

Shane: Sorry, hello. So, look forward to hopefully get in back at the library next semester so you all can read books and if, you know, anyone's read anything good over the past year, I would love to hear about that in-person next semester. So, hope everyone's doing well.

Jolee: Also, again, if you want any books or excited for any books, put it in the request form, we will buy them for you and then you can take them out and read them as you want. Also, good luck on finals, everybody.

Tabs: Yee, can't wait for the library to be a library again. Alright, after Head Librarian, we have our Head Activities Coordinator.

William: Hello everybody. Go play on the Minecraft server, we've got lots of cool stuff happening there. Make a house, why don't ya? I'm also planning on doing a movie night next weekend, but I haven't worked out the details or gotten an approval or anything yet. So get excited, but not too excited.

Tabs: And there's the form to get whitelisted on the Minecraft server, if you're not already on it. After Head Activities Coordinator, we have our Historian. Tell us a story.

Tom: Hey guys, this is a story, but this also just used to be our daily lives because I'm going to talk about how the Forum was actually once a place where people went to and wasn't just a Discord server where people talk. Crazy, I know. People would get lunch together, people would stay there for hours, play Ascension, like our former Historian Chris who got addicted and didn't have a good time, but he's okay now, so that's great. People had log books where you would write down everything that you'd write on a Discord server, except much worse and cruder, because who's gonna read that shit? It's like going through the history logs of Discord. Is anybody doing that? I don't think so. So basically, you know, it used to be fun until, you know, some things happened. Which hey, happy anniversary which we had a little bit ago. But, luckily it looks like we can maybe start going back to that. However, I got one stipulation for y'all you're helping with the moving in.

Tabs: Yeah. Hopefully, we can get some help for when we actually move the stuff out of our storage units, which will hopefully happen next semester but it will definitely happen whenever we open. Alright, after Historian, we have Head PR. She's not here today, but she would also want us to go hang out on the Minecraft server. I think she's doing some pretty cool stuff there, and turn up to the movie night. All cool stuff. Okay, I'm gonna open it up to open forum if anyone's got any announcements about upcoming shows, well wishes they wanna say to anyone, just pretty much anything. Speak now or forever hold your peace.

Tom: Good luck on finals.

Tabs: I'm goin' once... I'm goin' twice... I'm gonna close the open forum, the open forum is closed. You'll have to wait for another two weeks before you can speak again. Alright, should be about it, motion to end meeting.

Jolee: Seconded.

Tabs: Alright. New business: stay clean, don't get sick, treat the Discord like a child you don't abuse. Old business: stay clean, don't get sick, treat the Discord like a child you don't abuse. Meeting ends at 3:12 PM.

TL;DR/Important Notes
