

Jolee: Okay, meeting starts at 3:10 PM, May 7th. Good luck on finals, everybody. We don't really have many events planned or anything. It's the first time we're welcoming new eboard members. I'm new as President, Aaron is new as Treasurer. Angela couldn't be here, she's at work. But yeah, good luck on finals. I hope you all have a good time, don't die. And let's see, Vice president, do you have anything to say?

Ken: Not really, working on a paper. Good luck on finals, everyone.

Jolee: Okay. Treasurer, do you have anything, Aaron?

Aaron: Hi, I'm the Treasurer? I made a Campusvine account, even though it's closing. It's pretty funny. Sign up for something that is planned to close, like signing up for Adobe Flash. Like, I don't know, you can't do that, but you know what I mean. Nothing else to say. I mean, you can make a request on the form section of this. Yeah, wow we got same link. Yeah, you can make a request, probably not gonna really be able to do anything with it this semester, but hopefully next semester is in-person. All the classes are, so hopefully clubs will be allowed to reconvene and we can have some fun. That's all from me.

Alex: Okay. Secretary, Alex, do you have anything to say? Not much, just been working on a lab report, but I do have- there will be up sometime tonight- Once I'm done with this lab report, I will have the next transcript up, which is basically done. It's just that I had to make a few small fixes, which I got help from Tom for with certain spelling things, and it was basically done but it kinda just slipped my mind to add those adjustments, but it should be up tonight. It's basically done other than that little fix and the little notes section I put the end. That's all.

Jolee: Okay, thank you. Head AC, Will, do you have anything to say?

William: Not really. Hope everybody's finals go well, hope we can have in-person events next semester. Play Minecraft, if you feel like it, Jolee: Okay, and Head Librarian, which is me at the moment. Shane couldn't be here, I assume he's busy. Yeah, hopefully we're in-person next semester. I'm sorry, we haven't had that many events and we haven't been able to really, like, loan out books or anything like that. It's rather unfortunate, but hopefully next semester we'll be able to be in-person. We'll get everything unpacked and the room set up. Again, if you wanna request anything, please use the request form in chat. Okay, Historian.

Tom: Yes, so I will give you all the story of a tale long ago, which probably, hopefully, shouldn't have been long ago. Maybe it's to come. It's the tale of the Slurp Ramen. See, every Wednesday after meeting, or at least mostly every Wednesday, it was said that forumites would go on a grand odyssey to Port Jefferson to have Slurp Ramen. It was so ingrained, in fact, that many people would be waiting to leave meeting as soon as possible to go get Slurp and that there was almost certainly always be slurp brought back for members who were unable to go. Hopefully, we can still regain this tradition and have all of our commuter friends drive all the residents back to Slurp Raman, have the yummy ramen that we all love, and stay there for like an hour or two and just be just be a general good, all-around fun time after meeting because that was- we would do that like a couple of like a few years ago. But now, you know, so hopefully we can go back to that.

Jolee: Good Times. Okay, PR isn't here. I'm sure they would say to put anything for request form. You know, if you have any events you wanna run, contact Head PR- Head AC. You know, come to our events. Okay, open forum time, right? Hey, Tabs, it's open forum time, right?

Tabs: What? I'm sorry.

William: Sounds good to me.

Tabs: I'm eating, I haven't been paying 100% attention. You did PR?

Jolee: Mhm.

Tabs: Yeah, after PR is open forum.

Jolee: Yeah, okay everybody, good luck on finals. Don't die in Projects, please manage your time and take care of yourselves now. Okay,

Jolee: No one else has anything to say for open forum?

Alex: N-

Jolee: Think then we can end meeting. Oh, sorry, what?

Alex: Nah, I was just saying nada. That was all I said.

Jolee: Oh yeah, sure. I think we can end meeting now, meeting ends at-

Tabs: You gotta do old business, new business.

Jolee: Oh, is that in meeting? Oh, I thought that was after. Okay, old business new business. Oh, Shane came. Old business, new business: clean, don't get sick, treat the district the Discord like a child you don't abuse. New business: clean, don't get sick, treat the Discord like a child you don't abuse. Motion to end meeting, right?

Alex: Seconded.

Tom: Acclimated.

Tabs: Yeah, I forgot that, but yeah. Seconded

William: Seconded.

Jolee: Meeting ends at 3:16.
