Historian Story:

We Must Ascend

Hear ye, hear ye, the tale so chilling it makes the GPA Rock quake. Fear the Ascension game. There was once a Forumite who sacrificed everything for the sake of the Forum. Their life was intertwined when Ascension was introduced. They devoted every waking moment to the game and failed every class because of it. There is a happy ending to this story, as they have recovered now and are doing well in school.

Stay in school, don't do drugs, don't play Ascension.

(jk we can't tell you what to do- play Ascension, but at your own risk)
