Historian Story:

Involvement Fairs

Come one, come all to the Science Fiction Forum table at the involvement fair. Today's story is short and sweet, but mostly just short. This year, like last year, the Spring Involvement Fair was held inside the Rec Center... which means nobody can get in... (we had to use the Rec Mobile App and there was quite the line past the Union).

In the modern day, the Forum always tables near the Tabletop Club, a club which we are rather friendly with (check them out!), but we always have a club or two between us. This year we had the Swifties keeping us apart, and last year we had a [redacted] table between us. Anyway, that's all for this week. Something short cus we didn't actual hold a GBM during the Involvement Fair.
